Seminar on
"Code of Conduct for Teaching and Non-teaching staff"
Organized by IQAC Jaysingpur College
21st September 2019

Resource Person:
Dr. Ajay Sali,
Regional Joint Director, Kolhapur Region

For the progress of college or institution it is important to update the knowledge of teaching and non teaching staff continuously as per the current updates. Teachers from the colleges are always in continuous phase of up gradation by participating in orientation , refresher and short term courses as it is mandatory for them for their CAS promotions. Non-teaching category is also one of the important category in college administration. Hence the college administration has to care that the non teaching staff also undergo the seminars and workshops for their up gradation continuously. Taking in to account Local Committee IQAC, Jaysingpur College initiated a Seminar on "Code of Conduct for Teaching and Non teaching staff on 21st Sept, 2019. Dr. Ajay Sali, Regional Joint Director, Kolhapur Region was the resource person for the seminar.

Dr. Mahaveer Akkole, Secretary, local committee Jaysingpur welcomed the Joint Director.

Dr. Ajay Sali Kolhapur Region and Principal Dr. R.R. Kumbhar has given the brief introduction of him. In his address he mentioned that first of all he is a teacher and each and every person working in the college and Institution must show affinity and integrity towards the college. Straight a way he has started to speak on "Code of Conduct for Teaching and Non-teaching staff". In brief he has explained what the code of conduct is and why it is necessary in college administration. He mentioned that if a code of conduct is implemented in any college then automatically the students also groom themselves in discipline and it will helpful to maintain the discipline in the college campus.

He advised teaches that they should be punctual, on time and sincere with their job and work. They should treat students as their children's and look after them to solve their financial, mental and family problems. Non-teaching staff is also the backbone of college administration. He stressed that each in every person in office should assign its precise work so that there should not be any difficulty to the students. Their behavior should be polite and friendly with the students. There should be a continuous interaction of non-teaching staff with the Principal to overcome problems related to the students and teachers. He further continued to mention the code of conduct for Principal and Local committee so that there should not a dispute between Local committee, Principal and non-teaching staff. Principal must solve the academic and administrative problem on his own and if necessary he should further discuss with Local committee members. Some of the persons from non teaching staff raised some quires from the day today routine, Dr Sali successfully solved their quires. The seminar was concluded by the vote of thanks by IQAC coordinator Dr. S.R. Sabale.

One Day Workshop on Office Management System

Knowledge Partner: Biyani Softwares, Kolhapur
Date: 15th December 2019

Now a days, due to revolution of computers and development in the advanced software, the office atomization is become fast. Various softwares have been introduced in the education for admission, attendance and data analysis. It is very important to explore this knowledge amongst the non teaching staff to perform the work of office rapidly. Taking in to consideration IQAC and Local committee Jaysingpur College organized a Workshop on Office Management System for non-teaching staff in collaboration with the firm Biyani Softwares, Kolhapur on 15th December 2019. Three software engineers from the said firm are worked as resource persons and almost 34 non teaching staff of our college participated in the workshop.

The workshop was conducted in the two sessions. The first session is dedicated for lecture and demonstration and the second session is dedicated for hands on training. The resource person Mr. Bahuso Ghatage has given introduction of Office Management System and its application in office work. He also introduced the various software's available for college administration. In second session Mr. Bahuso Ghatage demonstrated the software for office management system which include admission process, exam forms and data entry of whole college. He also elaborated the concept of record keeping and file management system in the office.

In the second session, the hands-on training was provided to all the office staff for tally and the software of office management system. In group, they have completed the assignments given to them. During the session number of queries of the participants has been resolved. The vote of thanks was proposed by Office Superintendent Mr. Sanjeev Magdum.
