Empathic response of the college in pandemic situation: Hope matters

Empathic response of the college in pandemic situation

: Hope matters

To inculcate the passion of social responsibility and to generate the empathy about society among the student's college carefully designs and implemented the programs through NSS and faculty in pandemic situation. We believe that the duty of the HEI should not be limited to the dissemination of curriculum and transfer of information. The HEI should be sensitive to the social problems and disasters and the response of faculty and students helps to develop the emotional intelligence among the students. The life and the psyche of working class affected largely. After analysing the situation college framed certain programs and activities to help the people.

In coordination with a NGO SHIVAR foundation college established COVID centre with the facility of oxygen concentrator and ventilators. Various social groups cooperated in this activity by providing PPE kits, drugs, cylinders, food and other necessary objects. The Covid centre served more than 100 patients and facility was sufficient for those patients. An awareness program –“break the corona chain” was organised NSS department of college. 3 doctors from the management of the college coordinated a group of physicians namely Dr. A. Birnale, Dr. A. Patel and Dr. A. Chougule initiated telemedicine consultation in name of the scientific society. The NSS students helped the primary health centres and their contribution was appreciated by the society and doctors.

The participants were felicitated by the college. The various programs run by college to support the peoples and society in pandemic situation are listed below

- 1)National Multilingual Conference on Problems and Opportunities in Agriculture: IN and After Covid-19
- 2) The Faculty member from department of Chemistry in association with Incubation Centre Synthesized Skin-friendly sanitizer without alcoholic smell.

SKIN-FRIENDLY SANITIZER WITHOUT ALCOHOLIC SMELL:

Dr. G. H. Nikam, Miss. Susmita Patil

It is observed that the sanitizer available in market has alcoholic smell as well as in some cases it irritating to skin. So this disadvantage of sanitizer is eliminated by preparing skin friendly sanitizer without alcoholic smell. This problem is addressed by Miss. Susmita Patil. The innovative idea of preparing sanitizer is developed in brainstorming sessions with Dr G. H. Nikam. The prepared sanitizer consisting of components are skin friendly. As a result sanitizer is prepared and used in college to avoid bad effects of sanitizer. The prepared sanitizer is also cost effective. The idea can be claimed for patent, after that it can be commercialized

Activity: A volunteer student of NSS department Jaysingpur College worked as Corona warrior and served as high quality human service during Corona period

Report- Manthan Chandrakant Mahind, a second-year volunteer student of NSS at Jaysingpur College, Jaysingpur, has done a great service to the community during the Corona epidemic and worked as a member of the Aadhaar rescue team and a volunteer student of NSS. For the last one and a half years, the Corona Warriors of this country have been doing national humanitarian service to bring the Corona pandemic under control.

In order to extend this service, Shivaji University has launched a campaign 'My Village - Coronamukta Gaon' through the National Service Plan Cell under the guidance of Prof. Abhay Jayabhaye, Director, NSS, along with the guidance of Vice Chancellor of Shivaji University Prof. Dr. D.T. Shirke.. The student of Jaysingpur College rendered immense services to the people of Nandani, Haroli, Jambhli, Takwade, Shirdhon, Hasur, Kavathesar and Chandur in Hatkanangle taluka by educating them about the use of masks and sanitizers during the lockdown.

After the death of a family member due to covid-19, family members did not attend his cremation were seen during this corona period. The cremation of two of such bodies from Takwade village and one from Chandur, who died due to covid-19, is done by students from Jaysingpur college and this is the truly a vision of courageous, immense and high quality human service. The student of NSS has shown sensitivity. When asked about this ideological understanding, social commitment and service to the country at such a young age, Manthan Mahinda said that it was made possible by the rites of passage at home and the inspiration of national service from the National Service Scheme.. His work is being guided by the Principal of Jaysingpur College, Dr. Rajendra Kumbhar and Program Officer Prof. Dr. Prabhakar Mane.

Activity- Distribution of Essentials to the Shivar Covid Care Center by Hon'ble Rameshwar Wenjane on behalf of Jaysingpur Police Station.

Report- Demonstrating social sensitivity, Jaysingpur Police Thane handed over the PPE KIT & N-95 Mask required by Shivar Covid Care Center to former MP Raju Shetty at the hands of Sub-Divisional Police Officer Jaysingpur Ma. Rameshwar Vanjane. While the Corona epidemic is raging all over the world, the Maharashtra Police Force is carrying out its regular law and order work accurately. At the same time, they are deliberately playing a dual role in trying to strengthen the hands of the government to stop the Corona outbreak day and night. But at the same time, as a human being, through emotional sensitivity, Maharashtra Police is creating a vision of humanity in the state.

That is why under Mission Samvedana, Jaysingpur Police station has consistently carried out its role by distributing essential items and N-95 masks to the poor and needy people of Jaysingpur city. Also, under the guidance of former MP Mr. Raju Shetty, Shivar Social Service Organization has started with the noble intention of providing proper services to the poor and needy Corona patients at low cost during this time of Corona epidemic. Thanks to the donations made by the generous people and the cooperation of other elements, this Covid Center has been started. The Jaysingpur Police Station provided PPE kits and N-95 masks to the center for the purpose of contributing in part to the Covid Center.

Under the able guidance of DYSP. Rameshwar Wenjane under the able leadership of Inspector Dattatraya Borigidde, the police officers, police personnel and home guards of Jaysingpur Police Station are showing social commitment and human sensitivity. We have to accept the fact that their work is really good and admirable. On this occasion corporator Shailesh Chowgule, social activists Shailesh Adke, Mahavir Patil and other dignitaries were present.
