Report-

A noteworthy educational event was the Student Imitation Jewelry Crafting Workshop, which took place on September 29, 2022, under the direction of the renowned Chief of Saxes Foundation, Mrs. Bhumi Magdum, and Dr. Urmila Desai. The workshop's main goal, which was to transmit insightful knowledge on the commercial elements of jewelry manufacturing with a focus on empowering women for employment prospects, was attended by a total of 61 students. Along with mastering the complex craft of making replica jewellery, participants also received priceless advice on share marketing. This all-encompassing strategy aimed to give students, particularly women, both artistic and financial expertise, encouraging independence and entrepreneurship in the jewelry-making industry.
