One Day Workshop on Laboratory Safety Workshop

Organized by Department of Chemistry
Date: 12-12-2022

Safety is the factor of paramount importance in industrial and academic sectors. We come across many mishaps due to improper handling of the instruments and carelessness at work place. India has witnessed the unforgettable loss due to industrial mishandling i.e. Bhopal gas tragedy in the international company Union Carbide. Similarly in our college the departmental chemistry laboratory completely burnt few years back. The students and non-teaching staffs are not well versed with proper handling of the instruments. Also the biological specimen should be handled with proper care. The exposure of biological specimen particularly microbes can cause severe hazardous to the mankind and livestock. Thus, it is important to be aware with identifications and use of emergency equipments and protective gears. Considering the importance of the topic our department has organized one day workshop under leadership of Prof. (Dr.) B. M. Sargar on Date 12-12-2022.

Total 30 non-teaching staff and 07 faculty members were present during the workshop. The officers and staffs from fire brigade station Jaysingpur municipality were resource persons. During the active session the resource persons enlightened various safety protocols so as to avoid mishaps especially to avoid fire in the laboratory. They demonstrated proper handling of the fire extinguisher. The possible measures suggested by the experts are as below:

- Keep all the containers closed except when in use.
- Maintain adequate ventilation in the laboratory.
- Maintain ABC fire extinguisher in the laboratory.
- Minimize the quantity of flammable chemicals in the laboratory.

The workshop was very much beneficial for the participants for their own safety as well as safety of the laboratory.

Report:

Python is a computer programming language often used to build websites and software, automate tasks, and conduct data analysis. Python is a general-purpose language, meaning it can be used to create a variety of different programs and isn't specialized for any specific problems.

Scilab provides a high-level matrix language and allows to define complex mathematical models and to easily connect to existing libraries. That is why optimization is an important and practical topic in Scilab, which provides tools to solve linear and nonlinear optimization problems by a large collection of tools.

“Two-Day Workshop on Mathematical Software” organized by department of mathematics Jaysingpur College, Jaysingpur for all B.Sc. students to make them aware about various Mathematical Software and trends in the field of science after graduation on 27/04/2023-28/04/2023.
